

Haley Eovine - Rowing Bio

Haley Eovine has been actively involved in the sport of rowing for the last 10 years getting her start attending several Learn to Row summer camps through the Syracuse Chargers Rowing Club which eventually sparked her true interest as she continued on into high school. She rowed in sweep boats from her freshman through her senior year at Liverpool High School competing with her scholastic team in the spring and with the Chargers Rowing Club in the summer and fall. She spent her college years at UMass Amherst and because of her size was asked to switch from rowing to coxing. She would then spend the next 4 years in the 9th seat. She found her true passion for the sport during this time eventually earning a spot as team captain her senior year. She is currently working as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the defending national champions at Bates college.
